☑ Budget

A street-food brand, launched by design.

A consultant-style snapshot of how Zing & Zest Street Bites turns a four-week pre-launch sprint into measurable trial, reach and loyalty.

Business Concept

A Lahore food truck serving bold desi street flavours: the Signature Zest Burger and the Shawarma Wrap, built on one promise, Fresh. Fast. Full of Flavor.

Marketing Objective

A focused four-week pre-launch campaign that converts awareness into 100 trial customers in Week 1, across the three audiences identified in Assignment 1.

Promotion Strategy

An IMC plan across Instagram and Facebook content, a Lahore nano-influencer, and on-ground campus sampling, all sequenced through the AIDA funnel.

Expected Outcomes

5,000 campus impressions, 200 DM inquiries and 100 Day-1 customers, reinforced by a loyalty engine and delivery plus campus partnerships.

Who We Are Targeting

UCP Students

Highest purchase frequency. On-campus, social-first and price-aware.

Office Workers

Gulberg and DHA professionals after a quick, quality lunch.

Late-Night Explorers

Young adults hunting bold street flavours after hours.

Influencer Marketing

- Who: one Lahore-based nano-influencer (food niche, 3k to 8k followers)
- Deliverables: 1 reel review plus 2 story tags of the truck
- Deal: barter (free meals) plus Rs. 2,000 to 3,000

 Expected reach · 3k to 8k food-focused followers

On-Ground Activation

- Sampling: 150 free mini Zest Burgers & Shawarma Wraps to UCP students, one week before launch
- Mechanic: post on Instagram, tag the brand, win a free combo
- Street teaser: outside Gulberg offices, three days prior

Media Mix

Owned

Instagram & Facebook pages, daily stories and the menu countdown.

Earned

Influencer review, student user content and campus word of mouth.

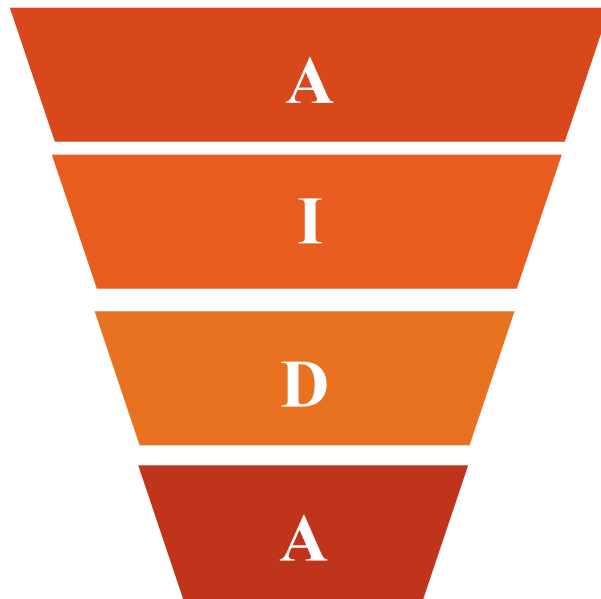

Paid

Meta ads for reach plus a Foodpanda and Cheetay launch listing.
